

DATA PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Tron Church/The Epaphras Trust, Glasgow

1. Personal data

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the 'GDPR').

2. Data Controller

The Church Manager representing the Leadership Team of The Tron Church/the Trustees of The Epaphras Trust is the data controller (contact details below). This means the Church Manager/Leadership Team/Trustees decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Leadership Team/Trustees comply with their obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use personal data for the following purposes: -

- to administer membership records;
- to provide pastoral care;
- to maintain our financial accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid);
- to provide news and information about events, activities and services at the church;
- to fund raise and promote the interests of the church;
- to manage employees and volunteers;
- to enable the church to provide voluntary services for the benefit of the public in our local community;

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a religious aim provided: -

- the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
- there is no disclosure to a third party without consent; or
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement; or
- Explicit consent of the data subject has been given.

5. Sharing personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to you, to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside the Church/Trust with your consent.
